

Offshore Wind in Europe Report

By Wind Europe

- 1 Europe installed a record 3.6 GW of new offshore wind energy capacity in 2019. Belgium, the UK and Denmark all set new national installation records
- 2 Europe now has 22.1 GW of offshore wind capacity
- 3 €6.0 billion of investments financed 1.4 GW of additional capacity in offshore wind in France, the Netherlands, Norway and the UK
- 4 10 offshore wind farms were connected to the grid and another 5 offshore wind farms began installations in 2019
- 5 The average rated capacity of offshore turbines installed was 7.8 MW. 1 MW larger than in 2018
- 6 All offshore wind auction results in 2019 ranged between €40/MWh and €50/MWh
- 7 Hornsea One connected all its turbines to the grid, making it the largest offshore wind farm in the world (1,218 MW)